

Dear partner,

In this newsletter, we invite you to find out about some of the activities describing how, for the months of September, October and November 2024, IOM in Chad, in collaboration with the Chadian government and thanks to the support of its partners, is committed to safe and humane migration, social cohesion and economic resilience within local communities.

Enjoy your reading!

Cher partenaire,

Dans ce bulletin, nous vous invitons à découvrir quelques activités décrivant comment, pour les mois de septembre, octobre et novembre 2024, l'OIM au Tchad, en collaboration avec le gouvernement tchadien et grâce au soutien de ses partenaires, s'engage en faveur d'une migration sûre et humaine, de la cohésion sociale et de la résilience économique au sein des communautés locales.

Bonne lecture!

NEWS ROOM

The multisectoral response to floods based on disaggregated data

Read more, Français ici

Chad strengthens its cold chain management for effective vaccination

Read more, Français ici

Continuation of programmes to assist the voluntary return of Chadians

Read more, Français ici

Official launch of the rapid impact phase of the project "Resilience et Développement territorial du tchad", RESITCHAD at Faya.

Read more, Français ici

IOM Strengthens Protection for Returnees in Chad through new partnership

In September 2024, IOM Chad provided protection, mental health and psychosocial support (MHPSS) at the Tongori (Ouaddai) and Deguesssa (Sila) sites, hosting more than 30,254 people, mainly women, children and the elderly.

Read more, Français ici

IOM engages communities in northern Chad through the RESITCHAD complaints management mechanism

Read more, Français ici

IOM and WFP in Chad Join forces for a more effective humanitarian response through biometric data sharing

Read more, Français ici

Technical Validation of the National Action Plan for the Fight against Human Trafficking in Chad

N'Djamena, 27 November 2024 - A two-day workshop devoted to the technical validation of the National Action Plan to Stop Human Trafficking in Chad was organized by IOM in collaboration with the Chadian government.

Read more, Français ici

SHARING BEST PRACTICES

- Read more, Français ici Sport for social cohesion in Degoussa _ An inter-sectoral tournament organised by IOM to promote living together.
- In Degoussa, IOM promotes economic autonomy for women in situations of vulnerability _ This initiative is part of the Mental and Psychosocial Health and Safety Programs (MHPSS).
- A mobile approach to strengthening protection and psychosocial support in communities
- Read more, Français ici A strategic humanitarian hub in Farchana, eastern Chad to strengthen the cross-border response to the crisis in Sudan.

INTERVIEWS

Abdelkerim Youssouf - A Chadian returnee explains how IOM Chad is helping him and his family to reintegrate socially.

Français ici

Mbaïtodjim Alexandre - Director of the Office of the Governor of the Lake Chad Region, explains how IOM supports sustainable solutions in the region. Français ici

STORIES

How an IOM-supported artisanal activity is helping to strengthen economic resilience and community cohesion in Eastern Chad

Read more, Français ici

Anassa, resilience to floods in N'Djamena

Read more, Français ici

Displacement Tracking Matrix (DTM)

- Read more, Français ici CHAD - RESPONSE TO THE CRISIS IN SUDAN: INFORMATION BULLETIN 46 (21 NOVEMBER 2024)
This document presents an estimate of the daily movement of Sudanese returnees through the Adré border crossing, based on data collected by IOM and CNARR.

ALL THE ACTIVITIES DESCRIBED IN THIS NEWSLETTER WERE MADE POSSIBLE THANKS TO THE SUPPORT OF OUR PARTNERS

|N'Djamena, 29th November 2024| | VIEW IN BROWSER

Copyright © 2024
INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR MIGRATION
All rights reserved

Our mailing address is: iomchad@iom.int

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.