IOM VISION

UPDATED: JANUARY 29, 2024

In 2024, IOM will continue its comprehensive humanitarian support for lifesaving assistance to Rohingya refugees in Cox's Bazar Bangladesh, based on community feedback. IOM's overarching priorities include the dignity, safety, and protection of the Rohingya and the provision of quality services across a comprehensive set of sectors. IOM is also committed to continue supporting the most vulnerable host community members and mitigating the impact of the refugee influx on the environment through integrated and environmentally responsible programmes for sustainable solutions.
