IOM VISION

IOM will support the Costa Rican government in implementing a comprehensive whole-of-government and whole-of-society approach to preparing for and responding to the humanitarian and protection needs of people in transit through Costa Rica. Local capacities to understand and reduce the vulnerabilities experienced by migrants will also be reinforced to inform future policy and programming.

In line with the Humanitarian-Development-Peace Nexus (HDPN), assistance will be delivered in a way that complements and enhances local capacities to achieve sustainable solutions, especially in border communities, and promotes opportunities for possible integration.
