

Repair works to the National Ambulance Center (CAN) during the COVID-19 response

IOM VISION

UPDATED: 25 FEB 2022

IOM, together with key stakeholders, including governmental, non-governmental actors and affected populations, is committed to addressing immediate and long-term mobility-related challenges in Haiti by enhancing the capacities of national institutions to better manage their borders and regional migration dynamics, reducing forced movement and the vulnerability of affected and at-risk populations, building resilience to identified risks, and mainstreaming migration into the development agenda through policy and legislation.
