IOM VISION

IOM Libya envisions a society where migrants, internally displaced persons (IDPs) and other mobile populations coexist peacefully with local communities. IOM seeks to address factors that increase vulnerability and suffering, fostering resilience, self-reliance and inclusivity, paving the way for regular migration pathways. In Libya, IOM will continue delivering humanitarian assistance in a humane, dignified and gender-sensitive manner, promoting sustainable solutions to prevent further displacement and supporting regularized cross-border mobility. Planned interventions are evidence-based, data-driven and curated to the needs of the targeted populations through a whole-of-society and whole-of-government approach.
