IOM VISION

IOM, in partnership with key strategic actors, is committed to addressing the causes and mitigating the longer-term impact of crises and displacement, through investments in recovery and prevention in Venezuela. Through multi-sectoral programming, IOM Venezuela seeks to address the root causes of irregular migration and internal displacement and reduce outflows as well as affected populations' risks and vulnerabilities. Moreover, the mission supports sustainable recovery, reintegration, community stabilization and durable solutions at national and local levels. This approach contributes to the humanitarian, peace, and development nexus and enhances the empowerment of local actors as strategic partners of IOM's response in the country.
